

The chinese exclusion act, which has been sustained by the supreme court at Washington, does not trouble the Ypsilanti celestials. Our chinese population now consists of three persons, Quong Lee, Yee Eye, and Der Wing, and they are duly registered and entitled under the Geary law to continued residence in this country. Hing Lee, by whose name the laundry has best been known, has gone to Pittsburgh.—Ypsilantian.